TEAMWORK

'Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence win championships.' Michael Jordan

Teamwork

+ What is teamwork?

- Have a think for 15 seconds.
- Define teamwork.

+ What is teamwork?

- Defining teamwork is not simple.
- Many see it as been a group of people working together.

Teamwork is a group of people working effectively and efficiently towards the same goal.

Kevin Sinfield – Rugby League

- Kevin Sinfield is the most successful captain in Leeds Rhinos history guiding them to 7 championships, 3 world club cups and also world player of the year – only the 4th Englishman to do so.
- Kevin Sinfield does not believe in individual success when it has been a team effort.

‘I think it is recognition for the group rather than myself...so I would like to dedicate this to the whole of the Rhinos team’

+ Coldplay - Music

- Coldplay are arguably one of the biggest band active in the world music scene. They tour all around the world selling out stadiums.
- Chris Martin writes the vast majority of the music and would typically command a huge share of the profits from the band however he recognises that it is a team effort and the band share the money equally.

'When the lights go down, that's 30,000 peoples lives colliding. Everyone there working is working for that moment, everyone watching is watching for that moment. It's when you're all in agreement about what you're all doing so it's a wonderful feeling of togetherness and possibility.'

+ What other teams are there?

- Remember back to the beginning.
- Think of any team – they definitely do not need to be famous. Your teachers are a strong team but we are not famous!
- On task is:
 - If you want to share it with us can you put your hand up.
 - There is still to be no talking apart from if you are instructed from me.

+ What is the purpose of a team?

What is the purpose of a team?

- Have a think for a few seconds.
- Justify why I played that video

Individual parts coming together as one in perfect harmony

- All of the parts on the video come together to create a car.
- Each one has a different job and has different things that it is good at. Relating this to the teams we have discussed:
 - Kevin Sinfield plays a certain position in the Leeds Rhinos team, he's not fast enough or big enough to play elsewhere.
 - Chris Martin plays guitar and vocals, he admits himself that a band full of Chris Martins' wouldn't work
 - I teach a specific subject as that is the subject that I have the most knowledge in, I wouldn't be able to teach you every lesson of every day as I don't have the required knowledge.

+ Teamwork at our school

- You will be working as part of team each day whether it be in lessons in group work or as a whole year group taking on the rest of the years in series of challenges.
- Not only as a year group you need to think about working in your forms, houses, sport and music lessons (as well as all the other subjects!)
- To be as successful as we can we need to ensure that we all play our part to be the best team. Don't sit back – be proactive to be the best team.

Teamwork

During this week

- How could you improve your teamwork over the next few weeks?
- Perhaps you could take a more active role in a team?
- Or perhaps you could step back a bit if you are someone that often takes a lead and let others step up

SPORTS DAY

Sports day heats are next week, and sports day the week after.
This is an excellent opportunity to work as a team
