TAKING RESPONSIBILITY

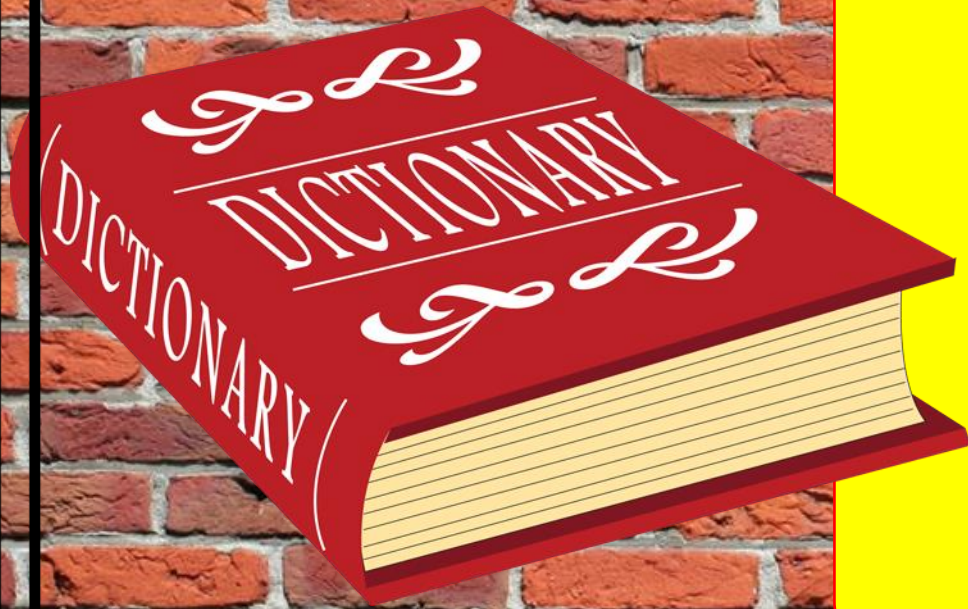

What is RESPONSIBILITY?

What is RESPONSIBILITY?

Responsibility:

- 1) THE STATE OR FACT OF BEING ACCOUNTABLE OR TO BLAME FOR SOMETHING
- 2) THE STATE OR FACT OF HAVING A DUTY TO DEAL WITH SOMETHING OR OF HAVING CONTROL OVER SOMEONE.

Being accountable for our actions...

What are you accountable for?

HIS FAULT

HER FAULT

THEIR FAULT

NOT ME

But we often make excuses to AVOID responsibility

It is easier to avoid confrontation or consequences by burying our heads in the sand.

A group of students in a school hallway. In the foreground, a young woman with long brown hair, wearing a white shirt and blue tie, holds a dark grey folder and looks down with a serious expression. Behind her, several other students are visible, some looking towards the camera and others looking away. The background shows green school doors.

Or hiding in a crowd.

Because it takes a lot of courage...

To be the bigger person.

Imagine if we all took a little responsibility...

Imagine if we all took a little responsibility..

Maybe it'd be that little bit easier...

IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH

ELSE IS GREAT UNTIL YOU'VE GOT NOBODY
LEFT AROUND TO BLAME
BUT YOURSELF

In the long run, we shape
our lives, and we shape ourselves. The process
never ends until we die.
And the choices we make are ultimately our own responsibility.

As you leave the classroom to go to your lessons, THINK of one thing you are going to take responsibility for today...

The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 2 Corinthians 9:6

Question: "What does the Bible say about personal responsibility?"

The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 2 Corinthians 9:6

Question: "What does the Bible say about personal responsibility?"

Answer: Part of growing up is taking responsibility for oneself. We start as infants with no personal responsibility whatsoever—everything that we need done is done for us. As we progress through the various stages of childhood, we take on more and more responsibility. We learn to tie our own shoes, clean our own rooms, and turn in our own homework. We learn that responsibility has its rewards—and irresponsibility has other, less-than-desirable effects. In many ways, the difference between a child and a man is his willingness to take personal responsibility for his actions. As Paul says, "When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me" 1

Corinthians 13:11

- PRAYER

- We give thanks as we start our new academic year. Help us to make the most of every chance we have as we start afresh.
- May we show love to one another and to all.
- Help us to forgive others.
- Help us to learn and to work together.
- Help us to listen when we should and to know the best words when we speak and when it is better not to speak.
- Thank you for looking after us in our community at Chiltern Hills and within our families.
- At a time when we hear of the dreadful plight of those living without clean water, sufficient food, those without a home and those living without love, please help us to understand and appreciate how fortunate we are. Amen.

- 1.) Is it better to be an unsatisfied free person or a satisfied slave?
- 2.) Would you rather be apathetically indifferent or proactively responsible?
- 3.) Do you prefer the bliss of ignorance or the pain of knowledge?
- 4.) Would you rather be slapped with the truth or kissed with a lie?
