

Chiltern Hills Academy Governor Profiles

Nick Brown

Nick Brown, a qualified chartered accountant, is a Diocesan-appointed governor at Chiltern Hills since May 2019. Nick and his family have lived opposite the school since 2007, moving to Chesham after many years living and working abroad in Russia, Turkey, Central Asia and Nigeria. Nick graduated in Russian at the University of London, became a chartered accountant in the UK before joining Ernst & Young's fledgling Moscow practice in 1992. More recently he worked for The Coca-Cola Company and Xerox. Leaving the commercial world after thirty years, Nick joined the Royal Air Force Museum in 2019 where he works as Head of Finance. Nick is an active member of St. Mary's Church, currently serving as a Deputy Warden and also on the District Church Council. He is also Treasurer (and plays the occasional game) for Chesham Rugby Club, which is based at CHA.

Paul Greenhalgh

Paul was appointed a governor at Chiltern Hills in September 2024. He has been teaching for four years and is currently the Subject Leader of Geography in a local secondary school. Prior to teaching, Paul had experience of children's and youth work for a church in south-west London. He has recently completed an MEd with the University of Cambridge in Transforming Educational Practice and a separate qualification in academic management. Away from his work in schools, Paul enjoys playing the piano, walking in the Chilterns and spending time with his Emmanuel Chesham church family.

Graham Hull

Graham has been a governor at Chiltern Hills and the predecessor school since 2009 and currently is Vice Chairman having previously chaired the Finance Committee and the Marketing Committee. His background is in business and process improvement and organisational excellence and holds a Diploma with the Institute of Management Services. Around 18 years ago he set up his own management consultancy specialising in business performance improvement and excellence, the application of standards such as the ISO management systems and business continuity and risk management. Graham is one of only 3 EFQM (European Foundation for Quality Management) Ambassadors in the UK and he is passionate about quality and the customer experience in any walk of life. Graham has worked for the public sector, not for profit organisations and private sector businesses in the UK, Europe, Middle East and Asia.

Reinhard Kowalski

Reinhard is one of the elected parent governors. He has been clinical psychologist and psychotherapist in the NHS for 40 years in a variety of therapy, teaching, supervisory and managerial roles within mental health services, mainly based in Amersham and High Wycombe for the past 20 years. He is now retired from the NHS, but still works as a psychotherapist in private practice. He is also a Mindfulness teacher and has published several books and many articles in the field of psychology and meditation.

Sally Long

Sally Long became a governor at Chiltern Hills Academy in September 2024. She worked as a special needs teacher in a number of secondary schools across inner London before becoming Director of Inclusion at Longdean School, Hemel Hempstead, a role encompassing responsibility for special needs, English as an additional language, alternative provision and the progress of able, gifted and talented students. Since retiring from teaching Sally has worked as a Methodist presbyter in Cornwall and North Lincolnshire. She now lives in Chesham, where she was brought up.

Zoe Neagle

Zoe is a local resident of Chesham, a proud parent of a CHA student and an experienced Senior leader of a London School. Having received her first degree from Southampton University, she then trained at the Institute of Education to become a teacher and now with over 20 years' experience in the education system, still works as a qualified teacher of English and Drama and a leader of school improvement. She is excited to become a governor of CHA to support the school community and share both expertise and experience in any way she can. Zoe began her teaching career working in prisons and has since worked in a multitude of various school settings from inner London schools to Bucks Grammar school. Zoe has a passion for teaching and learning, her Master's Degree in Education has equipped her with the fundamental academic knowledge to match her passion for this area.
