Celebrating Identity

Identity is a big word that can mean many different things to a person. Sometimes a person might see their identity as who they 'chill with', what school they go to, their ethnicity or their postcode (to name a few). To put things in a more simplistic way – our identity is 'who we are'.

Free personality test!

Take this Personality Test and get a "freakishly accurate" description of who you are and why you do things the way you do:

you'll also be able to learn what really drives, inspires, and worries different personality types, helping you build more meaningful relationships.

Quote of the week

Meet our pups!

Penny

Penny is Alice's new puppy; she is a 10-week-old Hungarian Vizsla. She loves eating frozen carrots and snores really loud!

Otis

Otis is a 1-year old blue Staffordshire bull terrier and is part of Kat's family. His favourite game is tug of war and when he wants attention he makes a noise like a dolphin!

Finley

Finley is Grace's dog, he is a mixed breed; a West Highland Terrier and a Bichon Frise. He is 8 years old, loves going for very long walks and always barks at other dogs on TV!
